8.1 An annual general meeting of all of the members of the Association shall be held once each calendar year at a place and time designated by the Executive Board;

8.1.1 Only Members of the Association shall be entitled to notice of and to vote at a meeting of the Association.

8.2 The Executive Board may at any time call a special meeting of the Members of the Association for the transaction of any business of which the general nature is specified in the notice of the meeting.

8.3 A written notice of every meeting of the Association, stating the time and the place and the general purpose thereof shall be prepared and given to the Members by the Secretary at least thirty days before the date of such a meeting.

8.3.1 Where notice is given to the Members, an accidental omission to give notice of the meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice by, a Member shall not invalidate the meeting or any resolution or any proceedings taken at the meeting and shall not prevent the holding of the meeting.

- 8.4 Any deviation in the form or content of a notice from the contents or form prescribed for the notice that does not affect the substance or that is not calculated to mislead does not invalidate the notice.
- 8.5 Only Members appearing by the records at the time the notice calling a meeting is issued shall be entitled to vote, and each Member shall have one vote only.
- 8.5.1 Unless a member present at a meeting otherwise requests, a vote may be taken by a show of hands.
- 8.5.2 There shall be no voting by proxy.
- 8.6 Subject to subsection 8.5 (a), any question coming before any meeting of the Association shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the delegates in attendance at the meeting and in the case of a tie, the motion shall be declared to be lost.
- 8.6.1 Where matters calling for a vote at any meeting of the Association relates specifically to the Baseball or Softball House League Divisions, or the Baseball or Softball Rep Divisions or the Umpire Division, then only Members present that have a player in that division, or members as determined by the appropriate Director of the Executive Board, shall be allowed to vote.
- 8.7 A quorum at any meeting of the Association shall consist of twenty Members. Where a quorum is not present at a meeting, the meeting shall be adjourned, and the Manager Administration shall cause a notice to be sent to all Members setting a time and place for the adjourned meeting, which time and place shall not be more than thirty days from the originally scheduled for the meeting, and upon the meeting being reconvened, the meeting shall proceed, and those present at the meeting shall constitute a quorum, but no business shall be transacted at the reconvened meeting other than that described in the original notice and such other business as may be necessary, ancillary or incidental thereto.
- 8.8 The MNBA board may vote, by 2/3 majority, to maintain the existing elected board for an additional calendar year and postpone the MNBA yearly Annual General Meeting (AGM) (AGM to be set no later than one calendar year to the date of such a vote) in the case of a of a force majeure type of situation (arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond MNBA's control, including, but not limited to and without limitation: strikes, work stoppages, accidents, pandemics, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, etc). Any such continuation of the board beyond the following year deadline (ie: into a 2nd + year) requires reasonable notification to the MNBA membership, an explanation/summarization of such reasoning for additional extension (be provided to MNBA membership) and an additional 2/3 majority vote by the MNBA board in place at that time. This section serves as an emergency provision to ensure continuity of the MNBA board, its functions, and its financial obligations and may only be utilized for situations of the aforementioned type/scope. All reporting and necessary legal, accounting and other activities must be continued and maintained as expected by all reasonable standards of duty and care.
