

The Nikki Ross Memorial Umpire School (NRMUS) Intensive Weekend Clinic 2023 Umpire Classes

It's that time of year again!

The Nikki Ross Memorial Umpire School (NRMUS) is pleased to be hosting it's annual (and long running) advanced Umpire Clinic sanctioned by Baseball Ontario. Now in new intensive weekend format (since 2022)! We extend this invitation to Umpires from all associations! We are continuing the tradition of the late Nikki Ross, great advocate of the baseball community. Space is limited so register early to ensure your spot!

The intensive umpire training will include; contemporary techniques, procedures, mechanics and rule interpretations. Umpires will be gaining OBA Level 1 and 2 Certification through this course (on-field and in-class components) with additional advanced components including game management, 3 umpire mechanics as well as advanced rules and interpretations. Baseball Canada Certified Course Conductors, will assist participants through all material (both levels) and on-field training.

The three-part course consists of: classroom work, involving rules & rule interpretations and a strong focus of on-field mechanics, drills & positioning work. Students will receive approximately 21 hours of instruction over the weekend (3 hours on Friday, 9 hours on each of Saturday and Sunday).

We offer an educational and enjoyable clinic! Please encourage other umpires to attend – register now! All materials provided. Gift bags are distributed. Prizes, giveaways and certificates will be given to participants!
